Dear Sir/Madam,

Apologies for the handwritten note, I am writing to voice my concerns about the town development plan.

Our pharmacy has been serving the people of Carrick for almost one hundred years. We feel on street parking is essential for the elderly who are a forgotten people in the world. We are now living in

The retention of parking spaces on the street is vital for our business and our customers.

Can you please acknowledge receipt of this

Yours faithfully

Denis Coghlan
